

Acknowledgement

I am especially thankful to my supervisor Dr. Nalini Kanta Dutta, Professor of Department of Juridical studies in Mahapurusha Srimanta Sankardeva Vishwavidyalaya(MSSV), for his thought provoking ideas and insight on the theme of the study. It gives me immense pleasure to express my deepest and the most sincere feeling of gratitude to Dr. Dutta for his valuable supervision, suggestions and guidance, along with immense encouragements throughout the research. It is a great opportunity for me to complete the doctoral programme under his guidance. In spite of his busy schedule, he has always made himself available to clarify my doubts.

I want to express my sincere thanks to Dr. Bimal Kumar Baishya, Professor and HOD, Department of Juridical studies, MSSV for his valuable suggestions and help.

I am indebted to Dr. Dinamoni Thakuria, former Deputy Registrar, MSSV and Dr. Jayashri Das, former Associate Professor of Department of Juridical studies, MSSV for their support and guidance especially in the initial period of my research.

I want to place on record my deep appreciation of my Principal, Dr. Gautomi Dutta Borah who at every step gave me her support. I would also like to take the opportunity to express my sense of gratitude to all the respected members of the Departmental Research Committee(DRC) of Department of Juridical studies, MSSV for their constructive criticism and valuable suggestions during the six-monthly progress report presentation.

I would like to extend my gratitude towards Mr. Bishitra Bikash, Assistant Registrar(Academics), MSSV for his help during the end of my research and Mr. Shekhar Jyoti Neog, Assistant Librarian, MSSV Central Library, for extending his support in every possible manner. I am also thankful to the library staff of all the libraries which were visited for literature review of the research for their help and assistance at every moment whenever asked for.

I shall remain ever indebted to all the respondents from Police Stations; Child Welfare Committee; District Child Protection Unit; District Legal Services Authority; Special Public Prosecutors of all the three district of Dibrugarh, Tinsukia & Dhemaji of Assam; and the Member of Assam State Commission for Protection of Child Rights; for sharing their valuable time as well as being co-operative during the process of data collection.

I am grateful to my colleagues from Dr. R.K.B Law College, Adv. Parash Jyoti Dutta from Gauhati High Court and Ms Sangita Das, Protection Officer(Non Institutional Care), DCPU, Dibrugarh who helped me in varied ways during the preparation of my thesis. I would like to place on record the support, love and affection which my uncle Mr. Baikuntha Borkakoti has showered upon me during my research work.

Words are not just enough to express my gratitude to my mother, Mrs. Anjali Borkakoti for her constant care, persistent encouragement and support throughout the period of this research. Without her support it would not had been possible for me to complete the research work. I am highly indebted to my elder brother Mr. Pranjal Borkakoti ,Sister-in-law Mrs. Madhumita Borkakoti and only nephew Sri Ritushmin Borkakoti for their love and Co-operation in completing the research. In a very personal way, I acknowledge my indebtedness to my fiance Miss Namita Gogoi for her constant moral support during the entire period of my research, which is unparallel in this world. Her selfless support helped me a lot specially in those hours when my patience and self-confidence trembled.

I would like to dedicate this research work to the memory of my father Late Makhan Ch. Borkakoti, whose principles have implanted in me the value of the quest of knowledge and motivating me to pursue research after my post graduation.
